

Word Tables for Academic Vocabulary

Here is a table of common words used in academic writing in their noun/verb/adjective/adverb forms:

Noun	Verb	Adjective	Adverb accusation	to accuse	accusative	accusingly analysis	to analyse	analytical	analytically application	to apply	applicable	applicably argument	to argue	argumentative	argumentatively arguably authority	to authorise	authoritative	authoritatively connection	to connect	connective	connectively consideration	to consider	considerable	considerably demonstration	to demonstrate	demonstrative	demonstratively description	to describe	descriptive	descriptively extent	to extend	extensive	extensively extension
illustration	to illustrate	illustrative	illustratively imagination	to imagine	imaginative	imaginatively object	to objectify	objective	objectively objectification objective origin	to originate	original	originally persuasion	to persuade	persuasive	persuasively relation	to relate	related	relatively suggestion	to suggest	suggestive	suggestively

However, there are some words that do not always have all 4 forms. Here are some examples:

Noun	Verb	Adjective	Adverb
-	to convince	convincing	convincingly advice	to advise	-	- assessment	to assess	-	- attempt	to attempt	-	- consultation	to consult	consultative	- document	to document	-	- evaluation	to evaluate	evaluative	- initiative	to initiate	-	- rationale	-	rational	rationally recommendation	to recommend	recommendable	- reminder	to remind	-	- suggestion	to suggest	-	- verification	to verify	-	- similarity	-	similar	similarly opinion	-	opinionated	- outline	to outline	-	-
-	-	remote	remotely

